

As I noted in the email I sent individual commissioners as well as the FCC's main email address on the morning of June 2, I strongly OPPOSE further media consolidation in the U.S.

Although the vote has passed, I wanted to respond to the email I received from the FCC requesting that I file my opposition to media consolidation through this ECFS filing system.